NOTE: This application is important. Please use additional paper if you feel the need to more fully present yourself.

1. Describe your personal philosophy of working and caring for children. Include your views on discipline.

2. Select an activity you are qualified to teach and describe how you would express your philosophy when conducting a 50-minute class. (What would your class look like? What outcomes do you want for you and the students? How would you plan for these?)

3. Set forth a situation that is likely to occur in a cabin of six campers and describe how you, as the counselor, would respond to it.
4. Write a brief biography describing your family, background, responsibility at home and elsewhere, interest, aims, and any experience and qualifications not mentioned previously.

Working at Lochearn demands of you an unselfish attitude. Your concerns and efforts must always be primarily directed toward the physical and psychological welfare of the campers. Though the management of Lochearn is very supportive, it is important that you recognize that camp counseling is a responsible job requiring a high level of care.
The statements in this application are correct and complete. I understand that any misrepresentation or omission of information shall be considered sufficient reason for withdrawal of an offer or subsequent termination of employment. I give Lochearn Camp permission to speak with any party who can ascertain my skills and character.
